

Faculty Grant Proposal Workshop 2004

UC Davis, February 27 - 29, 2004

UC Davis Academic Personnel, along with the Office of Research and the Division of Humanities, Arts and Cultural Studies (College of Letters and Science), is sponsoring a Proposal Writing Workshop for UC Davis Humanities and Social Science Faculty.

This workshop is designed to assist Humanities and Social Science faculty with understanding the fundamental components of a proposal, networking with potential granting agencies, and learning about available resources. The workshop will also provide direct feedback on actual proposals.

The presenters, all experienced UC faculty members from varying disciplines, will share their insights and suggestions on Day One. The subsequent two days involve more direct interaction between the presenters and those participants who have actual proposals, both institutional and individual, in order to allow for direct feedback on the proposals.
