

Shadwa Ramadan Ibrahim

Brief: This study is based on numerous interviews and fieldwork in Egypt with human rights centers, Activists lawyers and female activists who were politically and sexually assaulted. This study will analysis the survivors' stories from their perspectives during their political work between 2011 – 2015, Trying to find out how the survivors analysis and explain their stories from their point of view and how this analysis can lead us to new findings and concepts.